

GFWC Membership Grant Application Form

State Federations and Districts are encouraged to apply for $100 Grants on behalf of new and refederating clubs in their state to help underwrite new club building activities. Eligible activities include projects to federate or refederate an existing woman's club. Clubs that federated three months or less prior to the application submission are also eligible for funding. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis. Please complete the following application form and return it to GFWC Headquarters prior to the activities related to this grant program.
