

GFWC

est. 1890

GENERAL FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS

GEORGIA

Club Life

JANUARY AND FEBRUARY 2024

A Scrapbook of Club Activities

Alone we can do so little; together we can do so much.
Helen Keller

The January GFWC Lilburn Woman's Club meeting was their Installation & Awards Meeting. They installed new officers for 2024, welcomed new members, and recognized clubwomen for their years of service to the club and GFWC. Also, the 2023 New Club Woman of the Year, 2023 Club Woman of the Year, and the 2023 Family of the Year were announced.

New President Kathy Mattox chose the hummingbird as her symbol and "Seize the Opportunity" as the motto for her term.

Not pictured: 2023 Club Woman of the Year: Susan Allred.

2024 Officers: Kathy Mattox, President; Jenny Nall, 1st Vice President; Adela Salame-Alfie, 2nd Vice President; Deborah Shields, Recording Secretary; Dianna Carson, Corresponding Secretary; Ana Kolb, Treasurer; and Susan Allred, Parliamentary Advisor. Pat Swan installed the new officers.

New Members: Athena Harris, Pam Montgomery, Bailey Rigor, Felicia Rodgers, and Patti Smith. Each new member was given a notebook to record their ideas for potential projects.

2023 New Club Woman of the Year: Maureen Fraser.

Years of Service: Members were recognized for their continual service to the club and GFWC.

2023 Family of the Year: Judy and Elmer Nash.

Cathy Jones, 2022-2024 GFWC Georgia First Vice President/President-Elect, represented GFWC Georgia & the GFWC Vienna Woman's Club at the 2024-26 Orientation in Washington DC from January 4-7, 2024. Deb Strahanaski, 2022-2024 GFWC International President, hosted a reception at the GFWC Headquarters at 1734 N Street NW for incoming Board members.

The GFWC Hartwell Service League installed their 2024-2026 officers at their January meeting.

On January 6, 2024, the GFWC Morrow Civic Woman's Club had a wonderful celebration of yesterday and hope for tomorrow. They wrapped up 2023 with a brunch and their new officers for 2024-2025. Joining them in the festivities were past members and dignitaries that share and advocate their programs and causes. Georgia State Senator Gail Davenport and first scholarship recipient, Carolyn Davenport were special guests. Special thanks to Renee Goolsbee for the lovely table, Cookie Keene for the favors, an empty bowl for enjoying oatmeal, soup, or ice cream and remembering those less fortunate with food insecurities, and Mary Harmon for her rendition of the GFWC Collect in song.

Lois Wolfe installed the new officers for 2024-2025: Joy Lanier and Cookie Keene, Co-Presidents; Peggy Wilson, Second Vice President; Angelia Wright, Treasurer; and Heloise Wilson, Corresponding Secretary.

Libby Bond, 2022-2024 Central West District President installed the new officers of the GFWC Bremen Junior Woman's Club at their January meeting. Linda Peterson Bulifant assisted Libby in pinning the new officers. Installed were: Stephanie McLain - Chaplain; Lindsey Nicole Braun - Treasurer; Kasey Taylor Bridges - Recording Secretary; Jennifer Denalsky standing in for Dawn Cook - 2nd Vice President; Brandie Garner - 1st Vice President; Amanda Mann - President.

The GFWC Sylvania Junior Woman's Club hosted a reception for local artist, Leslie Daniel, a current student at SCAD and former Livestock Queen contestant, at the Screven County Library in January. Leslie is famous for the mural in downtown Sylvania and for illustrating the book about the adventures of Harry the Cat.

The GFWC Azalea City Woman's Club installed new officers at their January meeting. Installed were Justin Jacobs - President; Nancy Nehila - Vice President; Janice Blanchard - Treasurer; Lisa Spells - Secretary/Minutes; Annie Roberts - Correspondence; Charlie Oliver - CSP Director; Avernell Rogers - Parliamentarian and Debbie Altobello - Media/Publicist.

Report Writing Is Fun! The GWFC Tifton Woman's Club held their annual report writing "clinic" on Saturday, January 13th, where they reviewed their projects for the past year and determined who would write each report, thus "spreading the love" and avoiding "report fatigue!" "

The Civic Engagement & Outreach CSP of the GFWC Lafayette Woman's Club recognized and honored law enforcement from the City of LaFayette, Walker County, and Georgia for National Law Enforcement Appreciation Day. They served approximately 60 officers - soups, stews, cornbread, and tasty desserts.

Nancy Jenkins of the GFWC Moultrie Federated Guild CIP presented a check for $1000 to the Colquitt County Food Bank.

Braving the rain, the Environment CSP of the GFWC Hartwell Service League planted 50 daffodil bulbs in late January in honor of the club's 50th anniversary in 2024.

At the LaFayette City Council Meeting on January 8, 2024, the GFWC LaFayette Woman's Club presented $10,000 to the Shop with a Cop program, which their 2023 Reindeer Run funded. The City Council also recognized the Gold, Silver, and Bronze 2023 Reindeer Run sponsors. The 2023 Reindeer Run also raised $10,000 for the club's college scholarship program for LaFayette High School students. The club will be presenting 5 scholarships: a $5000 LHS female scholarship, a $3000 LHS female scholarship, a $1000 LHS female scholarship, a $500 LHS female scholarship, and new this year, a $500 LHS public service scholarship.

The January meeting of the GFWC Brunswick Woman's Club was busy. In addition to the regular business portion, the club honored their Past Presidents -- Penny Smith (2010-2012, 2014-2016), Hilda Hagarty (2016-2018), Pat Porto (2021-2022), and Kathleen Orians Dawson (2018-2021, 2022-present). Club Parliamentarian and GFWC Georgia SE District 2nd Vice President Penny Smith installed the 2024-2026 officers. They are Kathleen Orians Dawson - President; Jeanette Pewitt - 1st Vice President; Lillie Smith - 2nd Vice President; Vicky Jefferis - Recording Secretary; Hilda Hagarty - Treasurer; Peggy Tuten - Corresponding Secretary; and Penny Smith - Parliamentarian. To top it off, the club presented the two county high school band directors with a check for $500 each for band instrument refurbishment. This has been an ongoing project for the club for over 10 years and is funded by the club's sale of Belk Charity Day tickets. Chris Duke, Glynn Academy Band Director, noted that the last year's donation covered the band fees for five deserving band members who might not otherwise have been able to participate.

The GFWC Tifton Woman's Club installed its 2024-2026 officers at Mi-Lady Bakery on January 16, 2024. They are Club President Debbie Thompson, First Vice President Tonja Tift, club guest Melissa Hughes, Recording Secretary Genie McCook, Treasurer Shirene Daniell, Corresponding Secretary Waldene Barnhill, Immediate Past President Jamie Stewart, and Cathy Jones of Vienna, First Vice President/President-Elect of GFWC Georgia, who conducted the installation ceremony. Not pictured is Second Vice President Nancy Nehring.

GFWC Gainesville Phoenix Woman's Club members met at the Hall County Library on January 6th for their annual Retreat to brainstorm and plan activities and projects for 2024.

Nine members of the GFWC Roswell Cares Service League and their guests enjoyed a day at Foster Care Support Foundation, Inc., an organization that serves a vital and growing need throughout Georgia by providing free clothing, infant equipment, and developmental toys to thousands of children in foster and relative care. The club sorted, sized, shelved, and restocked clothing in their store.

As temperatures dropped during the middle of January, the GFWC Cartersville Woman's Club went into action, collecting and donating a carload of items to help stock the warming shelter at the Forever Blessed Church. Water, paper products, coffee, hot chocolate, coats, sweatshirts, socks, individual snacks, fresh fruit, pastries, plastic utensils, paper plates, bowls, and cups were presented to Keith Milner, pastor of Forever Blessed Church by President Sharon Cannon on behalf of the club.

Members of the GFWC Morrow Civic Woman’s Club, along with members of First Baptist Morrow and St Philip Benizi Church and the Coalition Against Domestic Violence advocated as part of the St Philip Benizi Catholic Church’s 10th Annual MLK Celebration with a Mass and service projects. Pictured left to right is Jarimah Dillard—Georgia Coalition Against Domestic Violence Policy Director, Cookie Keene—Co-President of MCWC, Mary Harmon—member of MCWC and St. Philip Benizi Church, DaVita Parnell—FBC Morrow Pastor, Joy Lannier—Co-President MCWC and FBC Morrow member, Peggy Wilson—GFWC Georgia Second Vice President and member of MCWC and FBC Morrow, Kristy Coughlin—member of MCWC and St. Philip Benizi Church, Lois Wolfe—member of MCWC and St. Philip Benizi Church, and Jaidy Ramirez from Securus House.

Members of the GFWC Morrow Civic Woman’s Club, along with members of First Baptist Morrow and St Philip Benizi Church and the Coalition Against Domestic Violence advocated as part of the St Philip Benizi Catholic Church’s 10th Annual MLK Celebration with a Mass and service projects. Pictured left to right is Jarimah Dillard—Georgia Coalition Against Domestic Violence Policy Director, Cookie Keene—Co-President of MCWC, Mary Harmon—member of MCWC and St. Philip Benizi Church, DaVita Parnell—FBC Morrow Pastor, Joy Lannier—Co-President MCWC and FBC Morrow member, Peggy Wilson—GFWC Georgia Second Vice President and member of MCWC and FBC Morrow, Kristy Coughlin—member of MCWC and St. Philip Benizi Church, Lois Wolfe—member of MCWC and St. Philip Benizi Church, and Jaidy Ramirez from Securus House.

The GFWC Toccoa Woman’s Club made 31 toiletry wash cloth wraps for the Hope Center of Toccoa. Club women sewed wraps; collected items (soap, toothbrush, toothbrush, deodorant, hand sanitizer, a comb, and a pair of socks) and stuffed wash-cloth wraps.

The Health and Wellness CSP of the GFWC Hartwell Service League provided Christmas gift bags for the 204 Hart County Senior Adults living in the 3 nursing homes and/or come to the Senior Center each day. Members stuffed and delivered the bags.

The GFWC Bremen Junior Woman’s Club presented a donation in January to Dr. Allison Key with Be the Light Medical Missions for $4,500. Be the Light Medical Missions is a faith-based, non-profit organization founded in 2019 by a group of friends, family, and healthcare workers who genuinely want to make a difference in the lives of others through free healthcare services.

The Atlanta Woman’s Club Book Club had as their guest, Terri Parlato, author of the mystery thriller ALL THE DARK PLACES, at their meeting on Saturday January 27, 2024.

The event was held at Page Henry’s home and 16 members attended.

The GFWC Moultrie Federated Guild held their Annual Luncheon and Awards Ceremony on January 19, 2024. Awards were presented, new members welcomed, and new officers for 2024-2025 installed. Suzanne Mashburn was installed as the 2024-2025 President and the noble horse will be her symbol. Joining the club members for the day was Cathy Jones, of the GFWC Vienna Woman's Club and the 2022-2024 GFWC Georgia First Vice President/President-Elect.

In January, the GFWC Millen Woman's Club completed their Fall into Fall Project, bringing warmth and care to Jenco. Individual members donated winter accessories—hats, gloves, scarves, and socks to individuals in their community. Also in January, the Civic Engagement and Outreach CSP members Jessica Suggs and Wanda Black, along with the Jenkins County Sheriff Robert Oglesby, were successful in getting a safe transaction zone at the Jenkins County's Sheriff Office.

Two reserved parking spaces were designated as a secure and protected place for community members to conduct various transactions, eliminating the need to disclose home addresses or meet strangers at unknown locations, reducing the risk of becoming a victim. Additionally, this safe space can be used to facilitate custody swaps and the return of individuals' property in a secure manner.

On January 25th, the Evening Division of the GFWC Dunwoody Woman's Club had a fun evening arranging flowers. In the workshop, lead by Kathy Hanna and Jill Post and assisted by the club's decorating committee, members made two lovely arrangements using coffee mugs. — one to keep and one to share with a friend or person needing a little cheer. They also recognized Rosemary Watts as the New Member of the Year.

The GFWC Lilburn Woman's Club honored their 2022-2023 Club President, Susan Allred for her leadership and dedication with an afternoon reception at the home of Gloria Sill on January 14, 2024. Attended by over 30 members, the celebration was filled with laughter, fellowship, and delicious food.

The Arts and Culture CSP of The Atlanta Woman's Club hosted a tour of the Cyclorama at the Atlanta History Center. The painting was created in 1886 and relocated to Atlanta in 1892. It was placed in Grant Park in 1921 and later transferred to the Atlanta History Center for long term preservation and opened in 2019. An Atlanta History archivist shared details about the restoration of the painting with club members.

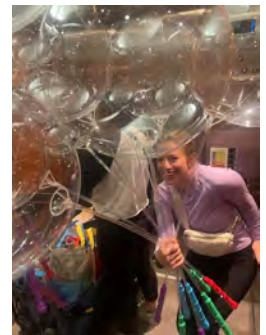

GFWC Dawson County Woman's Club officers for 2024 were installed by Barbara Brooks, 2022-2024 GFWC Georgia North East District President, at their annual luncheon in January.

Members of the Civic Engagement and Outreach CSP of the GFWC Hartwell Service League met in January to make plans for 2024. One project fulfilled was donating 50+ items to the Hart County Food Pantry in honor of the upcoming 50th Anniversary of the GFWC Hartwell Service League!

The GFWC Roswell Cares Service League hosted a fun craft party for 20 children at the Children's Hospital at Scottish Rite. Each child received a balloon, made a craft, and left with a smile. This is a monthly event for the club.

Congratulations to Caroline, the 1st Vice President of the GFWC Sylvania GEMS.

The GFWC Reynolds Woman's Club sponsored a Brush Fairy, an art brush sale in January. This deeply discounted 2-hour sale was a chance for all art lovers in the area to stock up on quality brushes at reasonable prices.

The GFWC Dallas Woman's Club continues to garner support by sharing their vision of rebuilding and repairing their clubhouse, 1921 Project, with community organizations. Partnering with the club are the Kiwanis Club of Paulding County and The Dallas Masonic Lodge.

GFWC Sandy Springs Woman's Club member Debra Sharker delivered some sweets to the Sandy Springs Station #2 Firefighters.

During their February Meeting, GFWC Toccoa Woman's Club members addressed over 130 valentines to patients in the Pruitt Heath Nursing Center, expressing our sweet thoughts to them for Valentine's Day!

Members of the GFWC Toccoa Woman's Club and the GFWC Toccoa Junior Woman's Club attended the new Bookmobile Ribbon Cutting in January at the Toccoa-Stephens County Library. This new Bookmobile will be "Spreading Library Love One Mile at a Time" to White, Habersham, Rabun and Stephens County areas.

The GFWC Bremen Junior Woman's Club hosted a Daddy Daughter Dance on February 2, 2024 and a Mother Son Dance on February 3, 2024 for Pre-K through fifth grade students. The dances were held at the Sewell Mill Event Center and was well attended both nights.

The GFWC Four Corners Woman's Club installed new officers for the 2024-2026 term. Installed were (L-R): Laura Toney, Nicole Rupert, and Linda Ford. The installing officer was Barbara Cabaniss of The GFWC Maxeys Woman's Club.

At their February Project Night, the GFWC Morrow Civic Woman's Club wrapped water bottle favors for the Central West District Meeting on March 9th. The wrapper serve as a reminder for Wells for Hope for South Sudan Project that builds wells to provide clean water to villages in South Sudan.

Three members of the GFWC Sylvester Woman's Club participated in the I Walked the Red Mile for heart health on February 2, 2024. Proceeds from the event went to support the treatment for Mrs. Anya Hancock Goldinger.

The GFWC Sylvania GEMS delivered Valentines to the nursing home residents of Syl-View Health Care Center.

New Officers for the GFWC Heartland Woman's Club were installed by Linda Ford of GFWC Four Corners Woman's Club. Linda also initiated their new member, Joan Holder.

Pictured L-R: Linda Ford, Debby Vanderbunt, Cece Hart, Jean Smith, Christy Ann Lassiter, and Joan Holder.

Justin Jacobs and Debbie Altobello of the GFWC Azalea City Woman's Club, along side the Arbor Division of the city of Valdosta planted 30 crepe myrtles along Sustella Avenue to in a effort of create a greener, healthier, and more vibrant Valdosta for all to enjoy.

In February, GFWC Sylvester Woman's Club, along with the local Beta Club, labeled books donated by the community to get for City of Sumner Library up and running.

In February, the GFWC Cochran Woman's Club took healthy snack and treats (and some sweets) to the Cochran Fire Department and got to see the new fire truck for Cochran.

The GFWC Sylvania Junior Woman's Club went "Go Red for Women" at their Board meeting on February 1. Afterwards, they helped put up a Valentine's table at the Screven County Library and viewed the library's display for Library Lovers' Month.

Members of the GFWC Vienna Woman's Club had dinner and attended a paint party on February 6 at the RailHouse Tavern. Look at all those entrants into next year's Member Arts Contest!

The GFWC Cartersville Woman's Club and some friends showed support for "National Wear Red Day" on February 2, 2024 as they went about their daily lives.

Members of the GFWC Toccoa Junior Woman's Club were in different places, but still wore red for "National Wear Red Day" on February 2nd.

The GFWC Moultrie Federated Guild held an orientation for its new members in February. Pictured from left to right are: Kandy Dela Cruz, Mona Powell, Nicole Gilbert, Jackie Mize (Treasurer), Sonya Aldridge (2nd Vice President), Holly Perryman (1st Vice President), Suzanne Mashburn (President), Jenny Chastain (Recording Secretary), Ginger Hunnicutt, Donna Billings, and Karen Gould.

The GFWC Morrow Civic Woman's Club made special hanging valentines for the residents of River Place Assisted Living at their first project/meeting night in February. They also celebrated their special birthday buddies with a Valentine birthday cookie and delicious snacks.

The Civic Engagement and Outreach CSP of The Atlanta Woman's Club is partnering with The Scholarship Academy (TSA), a local non-profit that teach future college students how to pursue college without having to take on crippling debt. The Atlanta Woman's Club facilitated a "Cost of College" session for the young ladies (seniors) at Coretta Scott King Young Women's Leadership Academy on January 25th. The young ladies researched, calculated, and began their strategies to pay for college without debt.

The Atlanta Woman's Club members wore red at the general meeting in February to commemorate Women's Heart Health. And their guest speaker was Larry Peevy, President of Tallulah Falls School.

The GFWC Azalea City Woman's Club wore red to their February meeting to raise awareness of heart health. Their guest speaker was Josh Strickland with the VSU's Copeland African American Museum.

Also honored were Jeanette Coody and Avernell Rogers, charter members of the club started in 1969.

The GFWC Sylvester Woman's Club assisted at the 2024—Night to Shine prom at Unity Baptist Church on February 9th for individuals with special needs ages 14 and older.

The Civic Engagement and Outreach CSP of the GFWC Hartwell Service League served the Hartwell First Baptist Church volunteers a hot dog and chili lunch as they built raised beds, cleared the lot, and put up a fence for the Community Garden in the Rome/Richardson community.

The GFWC Vienna Woman's Club "rocked the red" at their February meeting celebrating American Heart Month and Valentine's Day. Members enjoyed a heart healthy meal of Mexican stew and some sweets for Valentine's. They assembled Valentines with heart healthy tips for several community groups. And collected a ton of pop tabs for Ronald McDonald House.

The GFWC Dunwoody Woman's Club made and decorated over 215 valentine cards to go to the local fire department, adult day care, and a local assisted living facility.

Members of the GFWC Lilburn Woman's Club traveled to Cumming in February to help the VFW Post 9143 Auxiliary pack cookies, snacks, and letters for their Treat for Troops program for soldiers.

February was a busy meeting month for the GFWC Stone Mountain Woman's Club as they had an exceptional speaker from the Mountain Park Wellness Center speak on a variety of topics, including cardiopulmonary resuscitation. Twenty-four members signed up for the class. They also nominated their new officers: Jane Brown and Marty Reese Bryan, Co-Presidents; Jackie Cornett, Vice President; and Brenda Price, Secretary.

At their February meeting, GFWC Cartersville Woman's Club members wore different shades of red to commemorate American Heart Month and took a group photo in front of a very red fire truck. The Health and Wellness CSP held a raffle for a Valentine-inspired basket, with proceeds donated to the American Heart Association.

The GFWC LaFayette Woman's Club held its Valentine's Day meeting, and the members "rocked the red." The guest speaker was Kathy Thornton from C.A.R.E.S Bridge Health who shared how the organization was helping those in need in the community. Members brought canned food items to support the Little Pantries in LaFayette. And the club spread the LOVE with $700 in community donations.

The GFWC Brunswick Woman's Club hosted their 7th Annual STAR Recognition Luncheon honoring the STAR students and teachers in Glynn County. Held at the Heritage Oaks Golf Club, the event was attended by the 3 students and teachers from Brunswick High, Frederica Academy, and Glynn Academy, their parents, guidance counselors, principals, Glynn County school personnel, and club members. Grayson Caine from Frederica Academy was the county winner.

Shirene Daniell from the GFWC Tifton Woman's Club was the guest speaker at the February meeting of the GFWC Sylvester Woman's Club. Shirene spoke of the importance of GFWC and GFWC Georgia membership. As a result, members gained a better understanding of the purpose and mission of GFWC and the Georgia Federation.

Members of the GFWC Cartersville Woman's Club delivered 344 member-created Valentines, along with socks and chocolate candy to the seniors in 7 local nursing homes and assisted living facilities.

The special guests at the February meeting of the GFWC Brunswick Woman's Club were the Huths with Angel Ministry and Teddie Martin with Our Journey, Inc., who presented programs on their organizations. Our Arts & Cultures CSP was in charge of the program and chairman Catherine McEnerney, who is also the President of the Golden Isles Fiberarts Guild, presented an excellent program on the different specialty groups in the Guild and showed examples of each group's work. The club's entries in the District Arts Competition in Millen were displayed. And the members took a new group photo as they "Rocked the Red" for American Heart Month.

February for the GFWC Georgia Marietta Woman's Club began with a request from the Atlanta Veterans Administration office, requesting assistance with Veteran Patient Appreciation Day the following week. The club said yes and were assigned the West Cobb V.A. Medical Clinic. Club women donated a car full of fresh fruit, granola bars and assorted treats and made thank you signs. Several happy club ladies had the privilege of spending Valentine's Day afternoon visiting with patients, thanking them for their service and handing out healthy treats. The donations were so abundant that they were able to share the Valentine's love around with thank yous, snacks, and hugs to the next door police precinct, the regional library and a neighborhood fire station. Sometimes the last minute opportunities to volunteer are the most rewarding!

GFWC Cartersville Woman's Club members assisted once again the Bartow County Health Department nurses in their scoliosis screening of 6th and 8th grade students at 5 middle schools.

GFWC Azalea City Woman's Club members Justin, Vivian, and Charlie attended the Arbor Day celebration at Sunset Hill Cemetery in Valdosta. Valdosta has been a Tree City USA Community for 38 years.

GFWC Hartwell Service League members along with other organizations in the community participated in the Backyard Bird Count, the annual worldwide bird count sponsored by Cornell University.

The GFWC Woodbine Woman's Club celebrated their 73rd Birthday at their meeting in February. Also, Rhett Sutton was honored with her 45-year pin. Congratulations to all!

Congratulations to Becky Smith of the GFWC Tifton Junior Woman's Club!

Becky was given the Prince Business Woman of the Year Award at the Annual Chamber of Commerce Banquet in February.

The GFWC Gainesville Phoenix Woman's Club honored Women's Heart Health at their February meeting by wearing red. They also learned about the Wisdom Project 2030 and what they do in their community.

Several members of the GFWC Hartwell Service League were recognized for their support of the Hart County Community Theater at the February meeting. These members volunteered their time at HCCT throughout 2023.

GFWC Dawson County Woman's Club helped provide snacks for the team members and coaches at the Reading Bowl at Robinson Elementary School in February.

The members of the Arts and Culture CSP of the GFWC Hartwell Service League made Fifty Harts for the club's upcoming 50th Anniversary and will distribute them to businesses in Hartwell.

Progress is slow but steady as the GFWC Vienna Woman's Club converts an old building, formerly housing a barber shop, into the Dooly County Veterans Museum.

The GFWC Tifton Junior Woman's Club installed their new Executive Board in January. Pictured left to right :

Becky Smith (Treasurer), Betty Wimberly (Secretary), Tiffany Lanier (2nd Vice President), Amanda Smith (1st Vice President), and Betty Morgan Cooksey (President).

The GFWC Dallas Woman's Club had a very productive February meeting as they met in CSP committees and planned for the year.

The GFWC Roswell Cares Service League made over 30 craft kits for parents who are with their children at Scottish Rite. During their craft parties, they found that the parents enjoyed craft time as much as their children. The QR code is a link to the How To video.

Members of GFWC Hartwell Service League's Civic Engagement and Outreach CSP, with input from the Arts & Cultures CSP, recently installed signs at the 3 elementary schools, HCMS, HCHS, and the Agriscience Center. The signs are Hart County Orange and Black, with messages to bring smiles to the students, facility, staff and visitors.

The GFWC Millen Woman's Club, along with the Rotary Club of Millen hosted the Millen Bingo Bash on February 15, 2024 as a fundraiser for both groups. The event was a resounding success for both groups, with lots of laughter, excitement, and thrill at winning a prize.

The GFWC Vienna Woman's Club sponsored their first Meet and Greet the Author series in 2024 at the Dooly County Library in late February. Mavis Stevens, folk artist and author of Last Chance Trailer Park, was the featured guest. In her debut book, Mavis brings to life the kind, funny folks she encountered growing up in trailer parks across the South. Mavis entertained with her happy dance and her reading from the book. Book lovers will soon be able to check out her book at the Dooly County Library. Participants were able to talk with Mavis and get an autographed copy of her book.

The GFWC Old Campbell County Woman's Club donated over 100 hand-crafted stuffed Valentine hearts to several nursing homes in the Fairburn area. Inscribed on the hearts were the words "You are Loved."

Members of the GFWC Carrollton Civic Woman's Club read to the children at Head Start in January.

Linda Mote, President of the GFWC Dunwoody Woman's Club presented boxes of candy and flowers to Miss Elizabeth Branch Manager of DeKalb County Library Dunwoody in honor of Love Your Library Month.

